Suzani Designs Wins Boutique Contest at the 2025 Hampton Classic Horse Show

Bridgehampton, NY – August 26, 2025 – Suzani Designs won the 2025 Boutique Contest for their colorful display of curated, handcrafted artisan goods in the beautifully decorated Agneta Currey Boutique Garden and Stable Row at the 50th annual Hampton Classic.

Prominent fashion designer Donna Karan, accompanied by her daughter Gabby Karan Felice and friend Kelly Klein, served as special guest judges. Together, they spent the day visiting boutiques and commended the high standards and overall quality of the displays.

“Everyone made such an effort. I think it was the hardest task I’ve ever had to do besides watching my daughter jump. I love that the Classic asked us to participate,” said Karan Felice. “It’s incredible, all the hard work and creativity in putting these booths together. Everyone deserves an award, so it’s hard to be asked to judge them.”

Boutique winner Suzani Designs showcases a range of designs and a unique, curated collection of handcrafted accessories made from the finest noble materials, including silk, linen, alpaca, vicuna and indigo.

“I’ve been coming to the Hampton Classic for quite a few years,” said Susana Correa-Vial, Founder and Creative Director of Suzani Designs. “I think the grounds and the whole area are very pretty. What I love the most about the Hamptons is the mix between beach and farm. Here at the Classic, it’s so nice to see all the horses and riders competing and that the show keeps going in this modern life. It keeps connecting with nature and riding at a higher level.”

Second place went to VOGEL, a New York-based company excelling in classic, handcrafted footwear, creating boots of unparalleled quality, utility and style for champions and amateurs alike. Third place was awarded to ZADEH NY. ZADEH’s bold, timeless equestrian-inspired jewelry for men and women is created with premium and responsibly sourced materials.

The judges also gave an honorable mention to KREWE Eyewear for their designs inspired by the endless diversity of life and creative energy.
