High Performance Skincare for the Rider by a Rider

"Confidence, grace, and determination are inherent to our sport. I wanted to give riders quality skincare that could be a partner to our journey, protecting and enhancing the daily health and beauty of our skin." - Monica Halem M.D.

- Medical grade not just over the counter, with clinical results backed by science
- Not only high SPF, but also certified levels of UVA and UVB protection
- Clean formulas, correct percentage of active ingredients, and specific key ingredients that address our sport's conditions
- Elegant formulas, textures, and application designs tailored to work for the equestrian's needs
- Environmentally responsible in its testing and ingredients
- Equestrian community support through charitable contributions

As an avid equestrian, Dr. Halem realized that the equestrian community needed effective skincare for the specific conditions of the sport.

Dr. Monica Halem is a New York City Fifth Avenue Dermatologist. She also teaches at Mount Sinai School of Medicine and is one of Castle Connolly's New York's Top Doctors and Exceptional Women in Medicine acknowledging her outstanding accomplishments in dermatology and cancer surgery. She has published several research articles advancing medical science.

COVER ARTIST - JULIE ANNA FREUND

Julie Anna Freund was born and raised in upstate New York. Ever since Julie can remember she has been drawing and painting. She began riding horses at the age of 8 and entered her first show at 10. After losing her father at a young age Julie found sanctuary being around horses and the barn. She credits the equine and barn environment for her up-bringing, from adolescence into adulthood.

Julie attended Bridgewater College in central Virginia before transferring to Savannah College of Art and Design. She rode on both school's equestrian teams in addition to showing her privately owned horses throughout the east coast. Julie graduated with a B.F.A in Painting and double minored in Equestrian Studies and Art History.

Upon graduation Julie moved to Milwaukee, Wisconsin where she taught both riding lessons and painting classes. Most recently Julie was an Administrative Assistant at Wisconsin Equine Clinic and Hospital before becoming a full time mother in 2020.

Julie is still living in Milwaukee, Wisconsin. She balances her time between being a mother and creating art that honors the positive impact horses have had on her life. She hopes to share her love and appreciation for these animals through her artwork. When she isn't mothering or making art Julie rides her horse at Foremost Farm in Delafield, WI.
