Adult Amateur Hunters Share the Spotlight

Bridgehampton, NY – August 28, 2025 – After winning Sunday’s $30,000 The Wellington Jumper Challenge, Brianne Goutal-Martreau (USA) returned to the winner’s circle on Thursday at the 50th annual Hampton Classic, this time in the Aspinall Hunter Ring. She finished first and second in the $10,000 Hunt & Go Stake presented by The Baran with two Aquitaine Equine mounts: Remedy (169 points) and Grand Remo (168 points), respectively.

Celebrating 50 years of world-class equestrian competition in 2025, the Hampton Classic Horse Show takes place in Bridgehampton, NY, August 24-31, featuring FEI CSI5* and CSI2* show jumping and USEF Premier hunter competitions with more than $1 million in prize money. The highlight of the week is the $400,000 Longines Hampton Classic 5* Grand Prix, one of the world’s premier show jumping competitions, on Sunday, August 31.

Goutal-MartEAU joined a field of 17 entries in Thursday's Hunt & Go Stake, which featured a 13-effort, 3'3" course designed by Lynn and Sarah Mullins and judged by Mark Bone and Sissy Wickes. Consistency was key in Goutal-MartEAU's victory aboard the 10-year-old Belgian Warmblood gelding Remedy, who had the second-highest classic phase score (84 points) and highest handy score (85 points) for a combined total of 169 points.

Goutal-MartEAU also secured the highest classic phase score with the 14-year-old Dutch Warmblood gelding Grand Remo (85 points), but their 83-point handy score ultimately earned them second place with a combined total of 168 points. The 10-year-old Belgian Warmblood gelding Talk, owned by Charlotte Rossetter and ridden by Kenzie Smith of Shoreham, NY, brought home third place with a combined score of 167 points.

"Both of my horses went beautifully today," Goutal-MartEAU said. "It was a really nice course, and I love the hunt-and-go format. It allows us to practice both parts of hunter life at the same time. The footing here has been great with the amazing weather, and I think the horses really appreciate that."

"The Hampton Classic is my favorite show of the year," said sponsor Kristen Baran. "There's something really special about this show because it really brings the community together. It's for everyone – the horses, the riders, and the spectators. I think it's one of the best shows in the country.

"Today's class was incredible," Baran added. "There were some interesting strategies happening in the ring. The inside turn at the final jump was challenging. Brianne went last (with Remedy), saw an opportunity, and gave a brilliant ride. It's wonderful to see amateurs and juniors riding alongside the professionals and rising to the occasion. The Hampton Classic is one of the most beautiful horse shows, and we are so grateful to be here for something like this.”

Sharing the spotlight throughout the day were the Adult Amateur 3’ hunters, who saw several champions crowned for their respective age groups. Sunday’s Grand Local Hunter Champion Rocklyn once again shone in the ring, securing the Adult Amateur Hunter 50+ Championship with owner and rider Anne Byers (Locust Valley, NY). Tom Rattigan’s Wroyal Jester won the Adult Amateur 36-49 Championship with Glenda Monkarsh of Las Vegas, NV, in the irons.

The Kalvarie Group’s Kalvarie stood above the rest with rider Madeline Briggs of Sag Harbor, NY, earning the Grand Adult Amateur Hunter Championship for multiple outstanding performances in the Adult Amateur Hunter 18-35 Hunter division.
