Baylee McKeever Wins the Platinum Performance/USEF Show Jumping Talent Search Presented by The Atlantic Southampton

Bridgehampton, NY – Aug. 31, 2021 – Baylee McKeever of Brewster, N.Y., rode McLain Ward's Salvatore to top honors in the Platinum Performance/USEF Show Jumping Talent Search Presented by The Atlantic Southampton at the Hampton Classic on Tuesday.

As with any equitation class, the judge evaluated only the rider's performance for this competition, not the performance of the horse. The Talent Search was a two-part class comprised of a traditional over-fences portion, after which the top twelve returned to the ring for an under-saddle phase. Following the two tests, McKeever was awarded the blue ribbon. Eva Fisherman of Brookline, Mass., placed second and Lauren McCaulley of St. Charles, Ill., third.

McKeever is trained by her father, Lee, and Ward, who just returned from the Tokyo Olympic Games. Although McKeever hadn't ridden "Sal" for a bit before the Hampton Classic, she knew he was being taken care of while she was away.

"I thought Sal was in his best condition today," McKeever said. "I know he's always ready to go, and I felt that he really understood the course and listened to me as I went along."

The 1.15m course, comprising 12 jumping efforts, was designed by Ireland's Alan Wade. Steve Sarafin judged the class's over-fences phase, and Chris Wynne judged the under-saddle.

While lining up for the results, McKeever wasn't sure if she had won. "We felt good going into the flat. Sal was just fantastic. I know I can always be better, though, so I thought I had a little room for improvement."

Charlie Jayne of Wellington, Fla., and Ammann Equestrian LLC's Stakan 4 were the fastest of eight horse-and-rider combinations to go clean in the $10,000 Gimme Shelter Open Jumper Section A, stopping the clock at a time of 55.643 seconds. Ireland's Gavin Harley rode Kavalli Di Magico, owned by Clear Ride LLC, to a second-place finish in 56.538 seconds. Brazil's Rodrigo Pessoa and Artemis Equestrian Farm LLC's Major Tom were third with a time of 58.942 seconds.
